

White Power on the Salish Sea

The Wall Street Tea Party Convergence

September 21, 2012 Lummi Nation tribal members gather at Cherry Point for ceremony to reject a payoff by Gateway Pacific Terminal proponents, and to commit themselves to protect their ancient village and burial sites located there. Seattle Times

October 11, 2012 Tribes oppose coal terminals. New York Times

November 3, 2012 KGMI radio host and Tea Party activist Kris Halterman interviews Citizens Equal Rights Alliance board member Elaine Willman, who says, “Tribalism is socialism and has no place in our country.”

March 23, 2013 KGMI radio host Mike Kent hosts Gateway Pacific Terminal spokesman Craig Cole, who says supporting GPT is a patriotic duty.

March 30, 2013 KGMI radio host Kris Halterman interviews Citizens Equal Rights Alliance board member Elaine Willman, who says the April 6 CERA conference in Bellingham will teach citizens “how to take on tribal governments.”

March 30, 2013 KGMI radio host Dick Donohue interviews Citizens Equal Rights Alliance board member Tom Williams, who promotes the untrue idea that Indians have citizenship privileges without paying taxes.

April 6, 2013 Citizens Equal Rights Alliance hosts anti-Indian conference in Bellingham with live interviews by KGMI radio hosts Kris Halterman and Dick Donohue. Speakers include Skip Richards, Marlene Dawson and Philip Brendale, who suggests seeking funding for an anti-Indian campaign from Gateway Pacific Terminal proponents. IC Magazine

May 16, 2013 Affiliated Tribes of Northwest Indians oppose fossil fuel export.

May 23, 2013 Gateway Pacific Terminal corrupts local politics. National Journal

June 3, 2013 Gateway Pacific Terminal threatened by Indian treaty rights. Bellingham Herald

July 31, 2013 Gateway Pacific Terminal proponent pays $1.65 million settlement for illegal clearing of Lummi archeological site at Cherry Point. Bellingham Herald

August 2, 2013 Lummi Nation press release states Gateway Pacific Terminal would violate the treaty between the U.S. Government and Lummi Nation.

October 2, 2013 Gateway Pacific Terminal proponents launder Whatcom County electoral campaign funds through Washington Republican Party. Seattle P-I